Rhyme Of The Rail

Singing in the forests,
Rattling over ridges,
Shooting under arches,
Rumbling over bridges,
Whizzing through the mountains,
Buzzing o'er the vale,—
Bless me! this pleasant,
Riding on the Rail!

Men of different "stations"
In the eye of Fame
Here are very quickly
Coming to the same.
High and lowly people,
Birds of every feather,
On a common level
Traveling together!

John Godfrey Saxe in Railroad Association Magazine.

Sue To Get Coal Cars

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Twenty-six coal companies filed suit in the federal court here today to compel 100 railroads to return coal cars to the rail of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railway and the Chicago, Terre Haute & Southwestern railway, on whose lines the coal companies have mines.

The bill charges that the railroads utilized the coal cars for their own hauling and that the failure to return them has forced the mines to be operated on part time only.

The coal companies operate fifty-five minutes with an aggregate daily output of 70,000 tons of bituminous coal according to the bill.

SCHOOL TROUBLE IN PEIRCE CITY

During the past week our neighbor town of Peirce City has been greatly exercised over the whipping of several school children by the teachers of the public school.

The superintendent, principal of the school and one of the young lady teachers were arrested and arraigned before a local Justice of the peace.

A change of venue was ordered and the Justice of the peace, instead of sending the case to the Forest Park Justice, decided, we are told, to send it to Verona. This was objected to by the attorney for the defense, D. H. Kemp, and the feeling became so warm that the superintendent, principal and attorney got into an auto and came to this city, which is another county.

Later an agreement was reached by which the case was taken to Judge Kaiser, at Friestatt, where, if the case is not sooner withdrawn, it will be heard November 9.

The feeling of the community is divided on the subject and for a time considerable spirit was exhibited on both sides.

St. Louis Republic Makes Astounding Offer to Ambitious Women

Surpassing in liberality any offer of its kind ever given in this section. The St. Louis Republic is offering to young women a remarkable opportunity of winning sixteen luxurious motor cars without a cent of cost. Other handsome prizes, including sparkling diamond rings, Victrolas, etc., are also to be distributed free among those who respond to the offer.

The glittering array of automobiles is attracting the eager attention of thousands upon thousands of people, and the good news of The Republic's great automobile and prize campaign is sweeping in every direction.

Automobiles are something not everyone can buy. To obtain one without paying money for it is something that seldom occurs. Its possession gives pleasure unalloyed, pleasure that only big money can buy—except in this campaign. The opportunity is open to women, whether residing in the city or country. Those residing in the outside districts do not have to compete with candidates in Greater St. Louis, as they have an equal prize list of their own to share in.

Every woman, married or single, from sixteen years up, has an equal chance to become the owner of an automobile.

The St. Louis Republic exercised much thought and care in selecting for its prize automobiles such cars as the ultimate winners will be proud to own. Best of all is the $1,725 Westcott Six, a classy 7-passenger model. The Chandler Six, costing $1,330, is another free prize. A $1,175 Studebaker, $1,110 Velie, a Reo Six worth $1,175, and a Chalmers, selling at $1,120, are among the beautiful awards, besides ten other cars. Every car is a 1917 model, therefore containing the improvements and equipment that next year's automobiles will have.

The automobiles and other prizes can be won by the simple expedient of gathering votes. Free votes are published every day in The St. Louis Republic, while thousands of additional votes can be secured by assisting in extending the circulation of The St. Louis Republic among friends.

Full details of The Republic's campaign, with illustrated descriptions of the sixteen automobiles, and everything necessary to start in the campaign will be mailed free by addressing the Campaign Manager, St. Louis Republic, St. Louis, Missouri.
